Office: Hoggard Building, W. Main St.

JUNE 12, 1890

Ask your grocer for Queen City butter crackers. They are the best.

Mrs. Alex. Meharry, of Shawnee Mound, Ind., is visiting relatives in this place.

Mr. C. M. Foraker, of Silver City, New Mexico, is visiting relatives and friends in this place.

Miss Daisy Bower, of Lyndon, was in attendance at the Conservatory commencement last week.

Quarterly services at Christain Union Church, at Marshall, beginning Friday, June 13th, closing Sunday.

Mrs. Thos. Miller, who has been visiting friends in the West for three months past, returned home last Friday.

Mrs. Grace Sloane, of Pulaski, Tenn., is spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Gardner.

Mrs. B. A. Robbins and daughter, Rose, of Corning, Kan., are visiting at the residence of Mr. Lewis Holmes.

Mrs. W. C. Smith and daughter, of Pullman, Ill., are visiting the former's parents, Col. and Mrs. Wm. H. Glenn.

The commencement exercises of the Union Schools takes place next Friday evening at the Armory Hall. There are six graduates.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Bittle-meyer died on Wednesday of last week, and was buried in the Hillsboro Cemetery on Thursday.

Rev. Wm. Runyan's family left to-day (Thursday) for the Loveland campground, where they expect to remain during the summer.

There will be a regular meeting of the Sons of Temperance on Friday, June 13, at 8 o'clock sharp. All members are urged to be present.

Miss Mae Cummings returned Wednesday of last week for her vacation after spending a year at her studies in Miss Nourse's school at Cincinnati.

Mrs. Ella B. Edinfield and son, of Frankfort, Ohio, are spending a few days with Mrs. Edinfield's aunt, Mrs. Kate E. Bennett, on West Main street.

The pupils belonging to the high school department in the rooms of Messrs. Smith and Truesdale were at the Rocky Fork caves on Wednesday of this week.

Mr. Geo. Compton, of Cincinnati, was the guests of friends in this city from Saturday last until Monday. George made this office a pleasant call, and said that the N.-H. was all right.

Rev. J. W. Klise may be a very good financier, but he is no "money changer," as his experience will show. It is too long a tale to relate in the newspaper, so we refer the reader to John. He'll tell you.

Miss Mary Rogers, who has been a student at the Conservatory of Music during the past year, left last Monday for a short stay at Wilmington, after which she will return to her home at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa.

Mr. James E. Roads, of Birmingham, Ala., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Roads, near New Lexington. Mr. James Roads will be readily remembered as the man who for quite a period furnished the people here with excellent milk.

The commencement exercises of the Union School of this place takes place on Friday evening of this week. The graduating class numbers six, and is composed of the following pupils: Julius Feibel, Fred Gamble, Feekin Walker, Hattie Mahan, Elva Foreman, Katie Lemon.

W. Copes, the West End grocer, left on the train Tuesday afternoon for —, well he's gone to get ventilating fans for his handsome business rooms. They are to be a thing of beauty and a joy forever. They are to be propelled by steam or electricity. This is a true item—Mr. Copes told us. But how is that for Hillsboro enterprise?

Ex. Probate Judge Dittie is in our midst and will open an office in this place and follow his profession—that of law. Bob informs us that he will eschew politics in the aggregate or in the particular. He will not be a candidate for anything. So there—he said it. But Mr. Dittie's acquaintance with the people of this county and his experience in the Probate office will command a liberal share of the legal patronage of the county. Success to you, Bob.

Stock sale brought the usual crowd to Hillsboro last Saturday. There was not as many horses offered for sale as on some of the former sale days, but prices were a little better than in May. The following sales are reported: Flock, 13; Russell, 10; Roberts & Co., 18; Dugan, 10; Wael Bros & Co., 8; Riley, 5. About 70 head changed hands at prices ranging from $90 to $160. A slight departure from the common method was the sale of 18 head of cattle and six mares and colts, by Thos. Long.

Mrs. Buckner is spending the week in Cincinnati.

Dr. Hoyt and Peter Brown made a brief visit to Columbus last Monday.

Miss Ella Lawrence, of Autumwa, Iowa, is the guest of Mrs. Ezra Stevenson.

Patronize the ladies of the Relief Corps next Saturday evening with your presence.

Miss Georgiana Richards made a flying trip to the Queen City the forepart of this week.

Prof. McKenzie and a number of the students visited the Caves over Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. James P. Morrow, of Greenfield, was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Jos. Spencer, the first of the week.

Miss Etta Hoyt left the first of this week for a month's visit to Detroit, Saginaw, and other points in Michigan.

The railroad agent says the West End Grocery receives more goods than any other establishment in Hillsboro.

The closing reception of the College year was largely attended and highly enjoyed. The music was furnished by the city band.

Don't forget that the ladies will serve you with ice cream and strawberries in the very best style next Saturday evening, at City Hall.

Miss Ella McSurely is absent on a three weeks' sojourn to Oxford, taking in the commencement at that place and visiting former friends.

John Srofe, son of Dr. Srofe, of Lynchburg, was adjudged insane last Sunday. The inquest was held by Judge Kelly at Lynchburg. He was taken to Athens by Sheriff Mackerly last Monday.

A meeting will be held at Marshall on Friday evening, June 20th, at 7 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of organizing a Farmers' Alliance. Deputy C. N. Pulse will be with the people at that place on the evening named.

The Woman's Relief Corps, of Hillsboro, will give a strawberry and ice-cream festival at the City Hall Saturday evening, June 14th. The Corps respectfully requests your presence at this their first public entertainment.

The Conservatory of Music of this place is no more. The closing exercises—a reception to President J. H. McKenzie—took place last Friday evening. Mr. McKenzie goes to College Hill to superintend the course of instruction to be given there.

The commencement exercises of the Union Schools will be held June 13, at 7:30 p. m. standard time. The Board requests that all presents and flowers be sent to the houses of the graduates instead of to the hall.

Wm. Hoyt, Clerk.

Messrs. J. W. Fenner, captain of the S. of V. Camp, of this place, and Con. Donor, our fire engineer, left for the encampment of the S. of V's at Mansfield, last Monday. The colonel of the Ohio Division of this Order is to be elected at that place, Mr. D. Q. Morrow, whose chances for the office seem to be good, went to Mansfield last Saturday in company with Hy Davis.

On last Tuesday evening the first nine of this place organized with the following members: Jenkins, Stout, Boulware, Rose, Lemon (Ed.), Smith, Lemon (Eb.), Frazier and Frank. They are all great ball players and will make a good team, which will be fast enough for any club in the county. In addition to this Hillsboro has a second nine made up of players who are not slow.

Miss Kate Carmany returned to this place last Friday, after an extended visit to her home in Madison, Ind. Miss Carmany is an accomplished musician. The following notice taken from the Madison (Ind.) Daily Tribune indicates the estimate of her performance at her own home:

The performance given at the second Presbyterian Church last evening was one of the finest ever held in this city. The organ Pastor in G and the organ recital by Miss Carmany was very fine and elicited much applause.

A quiet marriage was solemnized in the Probate office last Saturday by Rev. John Klise. The parties were Mr. John Stolls and Miss Sarah Louisa McFarland. Clerks and officers of the other rooms were present in their every day attire. The bride was also in every day attire. Judge Kelly's pleasant ways gave young people confidence in having the ceremony performed in that office. Another ceremony was performed in that office last week by Judge Meek. The parties were colored, and the names were Wm. Oscar Turner and Mary Wells.

The College and Conservatory closing exercises were listened to by a full house. Many were forced to either leave or stand up throughout the programme. The graduates from the College were Misses Grace Ellifrits, Haidee Van-Winkle and Maude Cox, and Messrs. J. M. Scarborough and Charles Scott. The Conservatory of Music was represented by Miss Kate Grand-Girard and J. W. Howard. Owing to illness Miss Grand-Girard was unable to be present. After the conferring of degrees by President McKenzie the exercises closed with a benediction by Rev. Murray, pastor of the M. E. Church.

CHANGE OF VENUE.The Britton Case Will Be Tried Either in Wilmington or Washington C. H.

On Wednesday of last week the issue in the Britton case was met by both sides in the Common Pleas Court for a second trial. Judge Pugh, of Columbus, occupied the bench. Thirty-seven men answered to their names who had been summoned as jurors in this case. Out of this thirty-seven six men passed, as the phrase goes, for cause. In order to secure a jury one hundred and twenty-five men were summoned on Thursday last. On Friday when these men were questioned as to having opinions formed one hundred and twenty-one replied that they had formed opinions in the case, leaving only four who were competent to sit as jurors in the case. At this juncture of the case the defense, on account of the difficulty of securing a jury, made a motion for a change of venue, which motion was not resisted by the prosecution. The drift seemed to be toward Wilmington as the place of trial, but Clinton county not being in this judicial district it is doubtful if the case will be tried there. This case loses none of its interest with the attorneys or interested parties, and when it is tried it will be warmly contested by the legal talent on both sides. Major Blackburn is now the leading lawyer for the defense, assisted by Garrett & Garrett. George Garrett has been in the case from the start and knows every inch of the ground. Prosecutor Worley has Mr. Sloane and Mr. Savage to assist him, and with this array of talent it will be no weakling contest. When the place for trial and time is finally settled we shall make the fact known to our readers.

City Hall, next Saturday evening. Ice cream and strawberries.

Mrs. Marie T. Rives is spending the week with friends in Cincinnati.

"Bert" Rogers and Geo. Shepherd were calling on friends in Greenfield last Sunday.

S. M. Carr, of San Antonio, Texas, left for Bloomington, Ill., after having spent several days visiting relatives near Berryville.

Miss Anna Lemon, of Xenia, was in attendance at the funeral of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Isaac Lemon, last week. She returned to Xenia last Tuesday.

Mr. John Finn, of the firm of Balty, Finn & Co., of Cincinnati, was in this city last Tuesday. The enterprising Ellis Pence tackled him and sold him a marble monument.

Have you seen Major James Anderson? He is exceedingly cheerful. The cause is that he has been a grandpa since last Sunday. Charley, who is pa, is as cool as the weather will permit.

The closing exercises of Miss Ella Patterson's kindergarten class will be held in the Masonic Building in the room occupied by Miss Sallie Murphy on Wednesday forenoon, June 18th, at nine o'clock.

I have a grade Jersey cow which gave in seven days 29½ pounds of milk, measuring 4½ gallons when strained, and made 16 pounds of butter. Who can do better? Not for sale.

Mrs. O. J. ECKLEY.

Mr. R. P. Roush, agent for the Singer Sewing Machine Co., has his office in Mr. Oonk's tailor shop. Mr. Roush is a new man in our midst, but he thoroughly understands his business, and should receive a liberal share of the public patronage.

Mr. A. Z. Blair, of West Union, who read law with Branson Worley, and John B. Littler were before the State Board of Examiners for the practice of law, and passed creditable examinations, and are now full-fledged lawyers. Mr. Blair will practice in West Union, while Mr. Littler has formed a partnership with H. D. Davis, of this city, and is ready for business.

The marriage of Samantha's handsome bachelor, Col. David Cook, to the cook at the Infirmary is worthy of a passing notice. The wedding takes place on Thursday, June 12th, at high noon. A number of invitations are out to friends of the groom. By this marriage two cooks become one cook, but whether to spell cook with a little or big "c" is the question.

Notice.

Stockholders of the Superior Loan and Building Association are hereby notified that a meeting has been called for Saturday evening, June 21st, at 7:30 o'clock, at the regular meeting place, for the purpose of electing one director to fill the vacancy in the board. All stockholders are requested to be present.

A. MATTHEWS, Sec'y.

Those fine strawberries we had for dinner came from the West End Grocery.

Does your Cake Dry up Quickly?

If so, your baking powder is adulterated with ammonia or alum, ingredients which are injurious to health and are used by unscrupulous manufacturers simply to lessen the cost of the powder and increase their profits.

Housekeepers who use Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder know that food raised with this pure cream of tartar powder keeps moist and sweet, and is palatable and wholesome.

"Cleveland's Superior" has the peculiar property, possessed by no other baking powder, of producing light, wholesome bread, biscuit, cake, etc., that retain their natural moisture and sweetness. This desirable quality, in a baking powder shown by the Official Reports, to be the strongest of all pure cream of tartar powders, makes Cleveland's Superior "Absolutely the Best."

Grantham-Brown.

A marriage of more than ordinary interest to Wilmington people occurred on Thursday evening, May 29, 1890, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Brown on Locust street, those most interested being their eldest daughter, Emily Grand Girard, and K. H. Grantham, youngest son of late Wm. H. and Mrs. Nancy Grantham. Both young people were born and raised in Wilmington, were schoolmates, and have been sweethearts from childhood. One hundred invitations were issued and nearly as many guests were present. It was a matter of deep regret that the venerable Mrs. Grand Girard and Miss Kate, of Hillsboro, were detained by illness of the latter, as were also Dr. Tappan and family, of Portsmouth, who was expected to assist Mr. Elliot, another uncle, in the ceremony. His place was taken by the bride's pastor, Rev. J. O. Pierce. At a little after eight o'clock the bridal party entered the parlor and in a brief but beautiful and impressive ceremony were pronounced man and wife. The bride wore a very pretty white silk gown, with rare lace at the neck, and a profusion of bride roses. A little later the wedding supper was served, consisting of the choicest of things to eat. The gifts occupied three tables and they were handsome.

Mr. and Mrs. Grantham will reside at the Brown home for the time where they will be glad to see their many friends.

Among the relatives and friends present from a distance were Mr. Theo. F. Brown and family, of Washington C. H.; Mrs. J. J. Brown, of Springfield; Misses Emma Grand-Girard, Mary Rogers, Mr. Ed Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Bowers, of Hillsboro; Dr. S. W. Elliot and wife, of Kingston; Mr. George F. Grand-Girard, of Circleville; Mrs. Wm. Downing, of Dayton, and Dr. and Mrs. G. M. Ireland, of Jeffersonville.—Cincinnati Republican.

Take Simmons Liver Regulator in youth and you will enjoy a green old age.

Died.

Mrs. Anna V. Meyers, wife of General Secretary M. M. Meyers, at their home on Tacoma avenue, died Monday afternoon, May 31st. During her residence here she has been most of the time confined to her home, but those whose privilege it has been to know her, and to visit her during these last weeks of suffering, have learned to love her for her sweet and cheerful disposition, and for the happy trustfulness with which she received the summons home. When she spoke of her approaching death it was with a smile on her face. The husband and three little children have the warmest sympathy of their many friends.—Toconia Bulletin.

Mrs. Meyers was formerly Miss Anna V. Nelson, daughter of Wm. Nelson, deceased, who resided north of this place.
